

Works Cited

Be sure to use MLA bibliographic form: Author. "Title." Publisher. Date. Etc. Indent where necessary.

Source 1:

Source 2:

Source 3:

The 5-2s Research Outline

Thesis:

Support 1:

a)

(Source )

b)

(Source )

Support 2:

a)

(Source )

b)

(Source )

Support 3:

a)

(Source )

b)

(Source )

Conclusion

Rubric for the 5-2 Outline

	4	3	2	1
Works Cited (10 points)	Three works cited are written in proper MLA format and punctuated correctly	Three works cited are written in MLA format. There may be some punctuation errors or missing details.	Fewer than three works cited are provided. Punctuation errors or missing information is consistent throughout.	No effort is made to cite sources effectively.
Thesis/Supports (10 points)	A creative and intelligent thesis identifies the research. Supports illustrate the reader's learning.	A thesis correctly describes the research. Three supports back it up.	The supports do not fully agree with the thesis, or the thesis is written incorrectly.	A thesis, conclusion or any supports are missing.
Source (5 points)	All details have sources listed. More than one source is used.	All details have sources listed.	One detail may be missing a source, or incorrect information is given.	Sources are missing from the reader's details.
Details (5 points)	Quotes, numbers, and specific names or instances fully support the reader's ideas.	Quote, numbers and specifics are used regularly to support the thesis.	Details are poorly thought out or vague.	Some details are missing from the 5-2

Name: _____

Due Wednesday, October 29